

I am registering my opposition to the possibility of relaxing the telemarketing laws established by Indiana and other states. I am tired of being bombarded by telemarketers offering products and services that have absolutely no value to me. I appreciate the fact the state of Indiana has done something about this fiasco. Don't ruin the progress made by the our state. We do have rights to privacy and I wish to not to be invaded by telemarketers.